

Meeting the Mystics Series

A monthly gathering at the Journey Center.

Throughout the past 2,000 years, men and women have been called to the mystical path of ever-deepening relationship with the Divine and have encouraged followers of Christ to engage more and more fully with Holy Mystery.

Friday, August 6th, 7:00 - 9:00 p.m.
Meeting the Holy in Poetry

Many Christian mystics find ordinary speech incapable of expressing their experiences and so have turned to the intuitive language of poetry to convey in beauty and symbol the communion with which Christ has transformed them.

Join us for an evening of listening, responding and sharing contemplatively with such poets as John of the Cross, Mary Oliver and R.S. Thomas.

Dan Beach and Ruah Bull are staff members at the Journey center who share a love of poetry, holy listening, and the spiritual journey.

Cost: $10 donation.

In this series, we will be inviting speakers to introduce us to these contemplative ancestors of ours. In each session we'll learn about a particular mystic, experience a practice that supported them in their journey, as well as have time for personal reflection and sharing.
